Federal	Demonstration Grants for Indian Children http://www.ed.gov/programs/india_demo/index.html	The absolute funding priorities for the program limit project services to: (1) school readiness projects that provide age appropriate educational programs and language skills to three- and four-year-old Indian students to prepare them for successful entry into school at the kindergarten level; and (2) college preparatory programs for secondary school students designed to increase competency and skills in challenging subject matter, including mathematics and science, to enable Indian students to transition to postsecondary education.
Federal	Even Start http://www.ed.gov/programs/even_startformula/index.html	This program offers grants to support local family literacy projects that integrate early childhood education, adult literacy (adult basic and secondary-level education and instruction for English language learners), parenting education, and interactive parent and child literacy activities for low-income families with parents who are eligible for services under the Adult Education and Family Literacy Act and their children from birth through age 7. Teen parents and their children from birth through age 7 also are eligible. All participating families must be those most in need of program services.
Federal	Head Start Grants (US Department of Health and Human Services) http://eclkc.ohs.acf.hhs.gov/hslc/h/s/grants	The objective of Family Partnerships is to support parents as they identify and meet their own goals, nurture the development of their children in the context of their family and culture, and advocate for communities that are supportive of children and families of all cultures.
Federal	IDEA - American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009: IDEA Recovery Funds for Services to Children and Youths with Disabilities http://www.ed.gov/policy/gen/leg/recovery/factsheet/idea.html	The IDEA funds under ARRA will provide an unprecedented opportunity for states, LEAs, and early intervention service providers to implement innovative strategies to improve outcomes for infants, toddlers, children, and youths with disabilities while stimulating the economy. Expenditures must follow the guidelines set out for IDEA.

Federal	IDEA - Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, Part B, Section 611 http://idea.ed.gov/	Part B of the IDEA grant works to provide funding to local education agencies (LEAs) to supplement special-education programs for youths between the ages of 3-21. By enhancing professional development, performance goals, state assessments, programs and materials , integrated use of technology, and specialized personnel (social workers, psychologists, and physical therapists), IDEA-Part B promotes an equal opportunity at education for students with disabilities.
Federal	Improving Literacy Through School Libraries http://www.ed.gov/programs/isl/index.html	This program helps LEAs improve reading achievement by providing students with increased access to up-to-date school library materials (including books) ; well-equipped, technologically advanced school library media centers; and professionally certified school library media specialists.
Federal	Reading First http://www.ed.gov/programs/readingfirst/index.html	This program provides assistance to states and districts to establish scientifically based reading programs for students enrolled in kindergarten through grade three . Funds support increased professional development to ensure that all teachers have the skills they need to teach these programs effectively. The program also supports the use of screening and diagnostic tools and classroom-based instructional reading assessments to measure how well students are reading and to monitor their progress.
Federal	Title I, Part A - American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009: Title I, Part A Funds for Grants to Local Education Agencies http://www.ed.gov/policy/gen/leg/recovery/factsheet/title-i.html	The ARRA provides $10 billion in additional Fiscal Year (FY) 2009 Title I, Part A funds to local education agencies (LEAs) for schools that have high concentrations of students from families that live in poverty in order to help improve teaching and learning for students most at risk of failing to meet state academic achievement standards .
Federal	Title I, Part A - Improving Basic Programs Operated by Local Education Agencies http://www.ed.gov/programs/titleiparta/index.html	More than 50,000 public schools across the country use Title I funds to provide additional academic support and learning opportunities to help low-achieving children master challenging curricula and meet state standards in core academic subjects. For example, funds support extra instruction in reading and mathematics , as well as special preschool, after-school, and summer programs to extend and reinforce the regular school curriculum . Title I, Part A also encourages parental involvement in their child's education.
